

This is Exmouth Rugby

Club Coaching Coordinator

The Club Coaching Coordinator reports direct to the Director of Rugby and is responsible for making sure each team has adequate coaching staff to grow and develop. You will proactively promote the education and development of all the club coaches at Senior and Junior levels.

Ideally you'll need to be:

A player or ex-player who can recognise good coaching skills

Enthusiastic and persuasive

A strong communicator

Well-organised and resourceful

Approachable and good with people

A good team player

What you'll do:

Work with the Director of Rugby and the Junior Chairman to identify, recruit and develop coaches to ensure sufficient and appropriate coaching staff are assigned to each team (including illness cover)

Establish the training needs of club coaches and signpost them to relevant courses and continuing personal development

Take a long term view that allows coaches to develop with a team over time

Act as a point of contact for the RFU, Constituent Bodies and club coaches

Register your up-to-date contact details on RFU RugbyFirst

Understand and publicise the RFU coaching courses and local coaching events

Help spread best practice between coaches at different levels

Design and lead the implementation of a suitable club coach development plan

Gather playing and coaching information from the club to aid national research projects.

How much time it will take up:

Around an hour a week.

What you'll get out of it:

This role directly influences success and the standard of rugby at all levels of the club. Recruiting the right coaches and seeing a team develop under them takes real skill and knowledge of the game.

Contact the Club Director of Rugby if you are interested.
